Endangered animals

By: Charley and Marissa – 4th grade

You most likely like cheeseburgers, but how are they made? You might be thinking this is supposed to be about endangered animals, we are getting there. Someone had to butcher a cow and its meat was processed. What if cows go extinct - no more cheeseburgers, cow's leather, cow's milk, and many may go hungry. Here is a list animals that are now extinct: west african black ringoes, pyrenean ibex, passenger pigeon, quagga, caribbean pop monk seal, sea mink, tasmanian tiger, teacup pupfish, javan tiger, and great auk. There is so much you can do to help. One way is to donate to some charities and you can help save the world - Best Friends Animal Society, Animal Welfare Institute, Snow Leopard Trust, Friends of Animals, Eco Health Alliance, and so many more! So donate now! These animals need you! Remember to go green to stay clean!.
