

Tuesday – May 12

Reading

Required - Go to the HMH website (the reading link for today):

High Frequency Words for the week: area, around, coming, from, goes, going, second, seemed, there, who

Go through the vocabulary cards (trunk, races, clutched, forgot, patient, imaginary, final, founded) and have your child use the words in a sentence or give examples.

The focus for today is:

Make and Confirm Predictions

- Before you read make a guess or a prediction about what a text will be about
- As you read, stop and think about your prediction

• Was your prediction correct? Yes, you confirmed your prediction. Keep reading!
No, adjust your prediction, make a new one, and keep reading!

Read the story May Day: Around the World on HMH website or p. 136-143.

Here are the questions to think about/talk about while reading: You do not need to turn any type of written or recorded response in with this. These questions are meant to guide you through the story.

- Before reading the story make a prediction about what the text will be about.
- After reading p. 139

Model for your child or say-Before reading I predicted the text would be about different May Day celebrations. I just read about how May Day is celebrated in Sweden. So I think my prediction was correct. I will keep reading to confirm that.

Why would Maria and Carlos ring the doorbell and then hide?

Answer: They want to surprise Ms. Garcia and see her reaction. This is what you do on May Day.

- After reading p. 140

Why do you think people celebrate the beginning of spring?

Possible answer: In many places, it is cold during the winter. The weather gets warmer at the beginning of spring. Flowers bloom. People are happy because they can be outside.

- After reading p. 141

Think back to the prediction you made before reading. Can you confirm your prediction, or do you need to adjust it? Give details from the text to explain.

What should you do next?

Answer: Keep reading

Optional

- Read independently for 15-20 minutes
- Your student can use iRead – it is one of the options on the first page once you login to HMH.

- Please have them explain on number 12.

Optional:

- Homework for 15.1 pgs. 863-864
- KAHN Academy

Writing

This week your child will be doing a journal entry each day. The goal is for them to write 5-6 sentences a day. We would love to see pictures of their writing. They are more than welcome to draw pictures to go along with their journal entries. Please date each entry at the top. The main things to be looking for are capital letters at the beginning of sentences, punctuation marks at the end of sentences, and spelling common sight words correctly.

Topic choices for today's journal entry:

- Write about your day.
- Free choice. Write about whatever topic you would like to tell your teacher about.
- What is your favorite thing about yourself?
