

Math Agenda

1. Draw different shapes on pieces of paper.
2. Have your child use string, playdough or yarn to cover up your lines making the shape with what they are using.
3. They could use any manipulative to cover the shape line.
4. Ask your child what the shape is and see if they can find that shape in your house.

