

1. Start with a pan or some sort of container.
2. Add salt, flour, sand, powder (just something that they can draw in).
3. Give your child a letter or number to write in the substance.
4. You could make it more challenging by giving them a word and having them say the first sound and what letter that would be.